LTIMindtree

Modernization of Middleware Infrastructure

with SAP Technologies for Leading American Processed Food and Snack Company

Client

The client is a leading producer of soups, canned meals, baked goods, beverages, and snacks headquartered in New Jersey.

Challenges

Use of multiple middleware solutions, leading to a highly complex integration environment, redundant processes and unused interfaces

High cost of managing diverse integration landscape (2500+ interfaces)

Need for reverse engineering due to unavailability of previous documentation

Our Solution

- LTIMindtree integrated business functions efficiently for profitable operations and sustainable growth by consolidating on a single SAP PO/CPI-based middleware platform.

- Reduced risk by replacing the customer's obsolete Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) platform.

- Modernizedthe customer's Enterprise Application Integration (EAI) platform and integration approach between the customer's systems of record and cloud applications.

- Put the customer's on a path to support digital transformation by integrating with mobile devices and IoT in the near future.

- Replaced IBM IIB9 EAI platform and its related integration components like adapters and MQ Series with SAP PO and CPI.

- Replaced Gentran EDI platform and Axway AS2 with SAP PO through a B2B add-on.

- Standardized, consolidated, and achieved maturity in B2B transactions and acknowledgments using SAP B2B add-on.

- Improved testing quality with our Integration Migration suite.

- Ensured naming convention and transport validation using our PO Profiler.

Business Benefits

Optimized the number of EDI interface maps leading to a reduction in Total Cost of Ownership (TCO)

Maintained appropriate documentation per interface resulting in reduced operations cost

Streamlined and consolidated system maintenance with a single window of operations
