A Secure, Mindful,
Enterprise-Ready
Generative AI platform

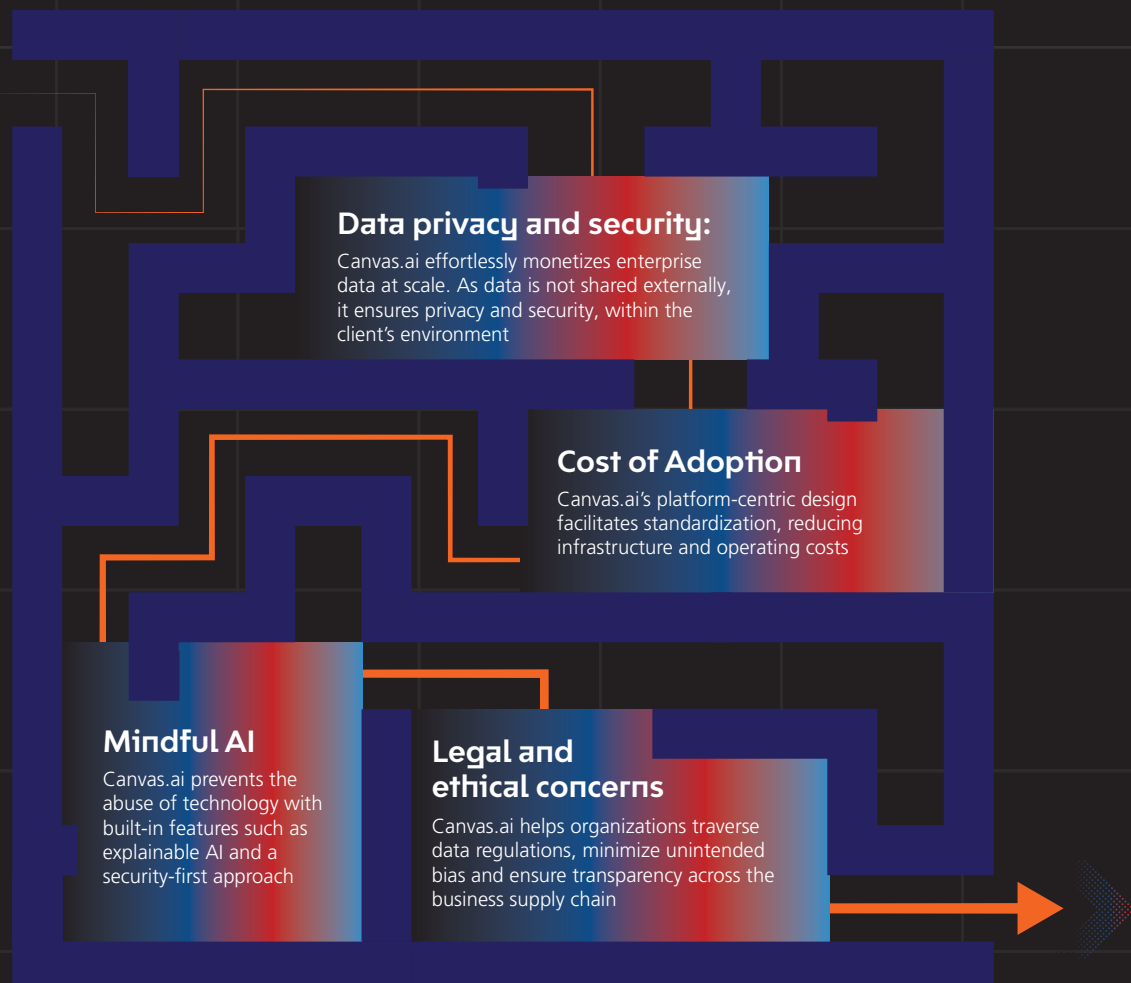

Start Your Gen AI Journey with Canvas.ai

Generative AI is transforming the future of work. However, rapid advancements and the pervasiveness of generative AI make it necessary for organizations to weigh the ethical ramifications of its adoption.

LTIMindtree's enterprise-ready Gen AI platform, Canvas.ai, enables clients to build, manage, and consume generative AI solutions responsibly.

Canvas.ai: Solving the Gen AI Adoption Challenges

Our industry leading generative AI offering, Canvas.ai effectively manages proprietary and industry-specific data while factoring in ethical use, sustainability, privacy and security. It is designed to accelerate the concept-to-value journey for businesses across industries, all the while catering to the three key enterprise personas of creators, admins, and end-users of Generative AI solutions.

Unlock Speed and Agility with the Canvas.ai platform:

- Up to 40-50% reduction in time and effort for app modernization and cloud migration
- Sound governance measures, policies can be integrated on an ongoing basis
- Tailored LLMs for diverse use cases and access to partnerships with leading LLM providers
- Convert ideas into practical use cases within eight weeks
- Platform-led offering allows users to plug and play in any environment
