

LTIMindtree Hosts 12th Annual Insurance Leadership Forum Showcasing AI Innovations and Industry Insights

Hartford - Connecticut, USA & Mumbai, India, Oct 7th 2024- LTIMindtree [NSE: LTIM, BSE: 540005], a global technology consulting and digital solutions company, concluded its annual Insurance Leadership Forum (ILF) on October 2nd & 3rd, contributing significantly to discussions around pivotal issues related to AI adoption in the insurance industry. Now in its 12th year, the exclusive insurance event held in Hartford, CT, is a premier gathering for industry leaders, technology specialists, and thought leaders, providing a dynamic platform for sharing insights and experiences.

This year's theme, "AI Meets the World," attracted over 300 industry leaders with representation from over 60 insurance companies, alongside 10 industry and technology partners. The event featured over 50 demo sessions and the launch of 15 innovative insurance solutions. Many of the keynotes and panel discussions focused on advancing Generative AI concepts into full scale production while navigating risks, security concerns and the limitations of traditional IT frameworks.

In addition to the event, LTIMindtree unveiled the Insurance Insights Journal, an annual thought leadership publication filled with expert articles and analyses on the latest advancements in AI. This journal serves as a vital resource for decision-makers within the industry, offering insights that can shape future strategies. Additionally, LTIMindtree introduced the Insurance Technology Trends Radar – 2024, designed to guide industry stakeholders in navigating the rapidly evolving technological landscape.

"Over the years, the ILF has grown into a marquee event for the Hartford, CT area, bringing together the best minds in the insurance industry," said Dave Althoff, Senior Vice President & Chief Business Officer, Insurance, LTIMindtree. "This year's theme, 'AI Meets the World,' truly reflected how technology is reshaping our industry. We are proud of how ILF has become a platform for real-world innovation, enabling our clients to move from AI experimentation to transformative solutions. We remain committed to making a difference for our insurance clients by helping them leverage AI to redefine their future."

The ILF has solidified its reputation as a must-attend event for professionals in the insurance and technology sectors. Under LTIMindtree's leadership, the event fosters collaboration and innovation that drives the industry forward.
